

Being Generous Together.

The 2020 Financial Plan for Missions and Ministry includes the Weekday Education Ministry budget in the overall cost of ministry at Providence. The total amount of this unified financial plan is $5,102,286. Weekday tuition and other ministry receipts will provide $2,260,035 of this total. The remaining portion of $2,842,251 represents our giving goal as a church for 2020. Let us follow our Providence Will vision of Cultivating Generosity, Engaging Cotswold, Blessing Charlotte, Making Disciples and Sending Apostles by being generous together!

You can find more information about the 2020 Financial Plan for Missions and Ministry, including detailed information about each Providence Will initiative, by visiting the Providence website at www.providencebc.org/being-generous-together or by scanning the QR code to the right.

Yes, Providence. YOU CAN COUNT ON ME!

Please detach and return Financial Covenant by 11/24/19.

I believe that, as a disciple of Jesus, I am called to give generously as a way to glorify God and help others in His name. Therefore, trusting in Jesus to cultivate this spirit of generosity in me—and in God to provide for my daily needs—I gladly make (check one):

- A financial covenant to give a tithe (10%) or more of God's provisions to me/us in 2020.
- A financial covenant to give generously and sacrificially, based on faith in God's provisions to me/us in 2020.

This financial covenant represents a contribution of $ _____ to fund missions and ministries in Jesus' name through Providence in 2020.
